Recreating the scene from the song of @DisneyFilmsIndia's '#TheLionKing' was so much fun!!! 😊

Do you guys remember it? The scene where Rafiki holds baby Simba on a cliff. Tried to remake it with @SayujSuresh's drone, considering my camera as the 'One True King', haha!

You guys can share your remakes as well to win a few goodies. All you have to do is -

1. Challenge 3 of your friends

2. Tag and follow @DisneyFilmsIndia

3. Use the hashtag #RaiseYourKing and #TheLionKing

For now, I will challenge

radhika_nomllers The world is progressing so fast and with such progressive life it is important that all your banking transactions are right on your finger tips.

@ICICIBank's iMobile application helps me in just that. I can now pay my bills anytime and anywhere.

It is #MyBankMyWay and I will strongly recommend to try the application to make your life hassle free.

Happy women's day to all the Women out there!

radhika_nomllers Day 2 - #Myntra3DayChallenge

Look at me, letting out the boho spirit of mine in Delhi. The unconventional spirit, the free bird, the part of me I truly love.

Wearing a floral @mango A-line dress (product code:10143201) from the Wild and Free trend of Myntra New season Autumn Winter collection. Channel your inner boho spirit, head over to @Myntra now - link in bio radhika_nomllers When you are in MP, do not miss out on sunsets and sunrises!

This one was on top of the Chanderi fort and if you followed my stories, right here we were also attacked by monkeys! If only my reactions at that time could have been recorded I might have been a viral meme! 🤔

radhika_nomllers India - Nepal - India - Bhutan

The route we have been following as a part of @mahindraadventure #Trination2019 trip where we have been crossing borders of our neighbouring countries by land.

There are 30 @mahindrarise SUVs and what a sight it is of the convoy from behind.
